Property Description

An elegant interior-designed and well-laid-out five-bedroom house spanning some 3,000 sq ft in the heart of Knightsbridge. This property enjoys an abundance of natural light and offers excellent living and outside space, including a 25 ft terrace on the ground floor, a balcony and a patio.

The house boasts an impressive first-floor double reception with fireplace, high ceilings and oblique views over the gardens of Montpelier Square, a spacious family room on the lower ground floor, a dining room with fireplace and a kitchen on the ground floor. The grand principal suite occupies the entire second floor. There are four further double bedrooms, two further bathrooms, a utility room and excellent storage throughout. The principal suite and the two upper bedrooms benefit from air-conditioning.

Montpelier Street is well positioned for world-renowned shopping, including nearby Harrods and Harvey Nichols, and the boutiques of Sloane Street, as well as for an array of award-winning restaurants and chic cafes. Hyde Park and London's most famous museums are within a short stroll.
